

Editorial Board Member Sundress Publications

Sundress Publications is an entirely volunteer-run 501(c)(3) nonprofit publishing collective founded in 2000 that hosts a variety of online journals and publishes chapbooks, full-length collections, and literary anthologies in both print and digital formats. Sundress also publishes the annual Best of the Net Anthology, celebrating the best work published online, and the Gone Dark Archives, preserving online journals that have reached the end of their run.

Our editorial board members' responsibilities primarily include reading manuscripts for our open reading period and year-round, but they can also include soliciting manuscripts, reviewing residency applications, serving as a contest reader or judge, or writing or curating features for our blog.

Required qualifications include:

- Knowledge of contemporary poetry
- Strong written communication skills
- Exemplary literary citizenship

Preferred qualifications include:

- Knowledge of contemporary fiction and/or nonfiction
- Experience with Adobe Creative Suite
- An interest in book design

Applicants are welcome to telecommunicate and therefore are not restricted to living in any particular location.

Sundress Publications is staffed entirely by passionate volunteers, so this position, as all with all positions at the press, is unpaid.

To apply, please send a CV and a cover letter detailing your interest in the position to our Managing Editor, Erin Elizabeth Smith at erin@sundresspublications.com. Applications are due by January 20, 2018.

For more information, visit our website at www.sundresspublications.com.